Christmas Bazaar/Craft Show Wrap-up

The event was very successful. The St. Eleanor Women's Guild was able to present the parish with a check for $8000! The crafters were appreciative of the business they did for the day and several expressed that they would like to be invited back again next year. Thanks to all those who contributed to the Home for the Holidays Booth, we collected $438 and used this money to fill 12 packages with items for the troops in Afghanistan. A special thank you to the parishioners who supported this annual event.

Fundraising

Save your register tapes from Acme and place them in the containers at the doors of the church to help our parish raise money. We have raised over $20,000 from inception!

We celebrated

Halloween with our annual costume party. Awards were given for the following:

Scariest - Dot Davies

Funniest - Patti Kolcun

Prettiest - Ceil Konoza

Most Original - Irene Pennypacker

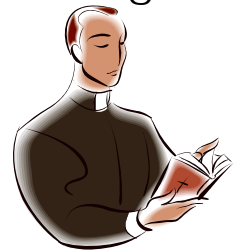

We also were able to restock our food pantry with the canned goods we collected. Thank you to all who participated.

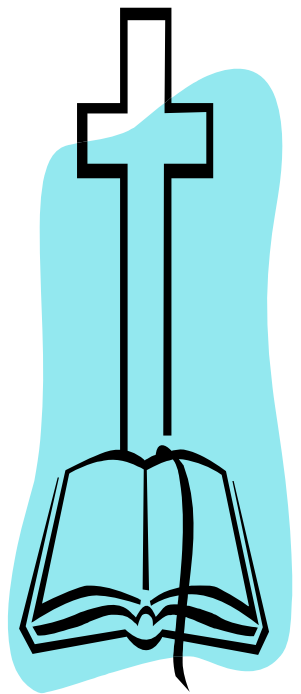

Happy New Year
